Conditions of Sale.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneers shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again immediately.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, if required, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown and with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The Auctioneers act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot, or for any fault or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which the Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may be then sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

All lots must be cleared by 5 p.m. each day.

The Auctioneers are prepared to execute bids, and, in addition, to advise intending purchasers as far as is practicable, if so requested, without making any charge. Instructions must be accompanied by a deposit.
